

Pagos de Anguix Prado Lobo 2019 Depth and Elegance

Red Wine Reserva DO Ribera del Duero

This wine comes from a single high-altitude vineyard with excellent exposure, ensuring optimal phenolic ripeness. The warm 2019 vintage in the Ribera del Duero DO delivered a moderate yield of ripe, healthy grapes. The resulting wines showcase a notable alcohol content, balanced by the natural freshness imparted by altitude.

Boasting an intense red hue, the nose reveals a complex aromatic spectrum. Ripe black fruit notes are complemented by balsamic hints of lavender and eucalyptus, underpinned by a distinctive minerality. Subtle layers of spice—black pepper and vanilla—merge seamlessly with whispers of cocoa, tobacco, and cedarwood cigar boxes.

On the palate, it's a masterpiece of elegance and depth. Noble tannins contribute to a silky, enveloping texture. Its fluid progression across the palate culminates in an extraordinarily long and persistent finish. With time in the bottle, it promises to evolve beautifully, developing even greater complexity and richness.

The 2019 vintage is widely regarded as one of the finest in the history of Ribera del Duero, and this wine is a testament to its excellence.

TECHNICAL DETAILS

Variety 100% tempranillo

Vineyard altitude 850 meters above sea level

Soil Clay-limestone

Rootstock 110 Richter

Vineyard age +35 years

Training system Cordon Royat

Planting density 2,200 vines/ha

Yield 2,000 kg/ha

Manual Harvest

Ageing, and oak aged 24 months in extra-fine-grain French oak barrels

Bottling date April 2022

Bottles produced 18,968 (75 cl each)

Alcohol 15%

Residual sugar < 1.7 g/l

Total acidity (ATT) 5.3 g/l

PH 3.76

Harvest start date 7 October 2019